

A Journey into The Faithfulness of God Great is thy Faithfulness ~~so~~ regularizes by George Beverly Shea & Billy Graham Gospelads. 1954. When Konkel first heard

"Great is..." and a flood of memories course thru. Reading the Book of lamentations is like walking through a battle field of suffering & pain, a war zone of sorrow. The attributes God has on the right hand & left hand are honoring, in the mirror Jeremiah pictures a militation of his own person.
But in Chapter three we see that during his Journey Jerend

I - See The Trials Jeremiah Reviewed (15:18-20)

A. You notice that it starts with word and, this is the end of a long last of unmeasured suffering Sufferings ~~so~~ great, that there is a wondering

B. Trials That Breaks us Mentally (v18)

The effect of these trials was so severe upon Jeremiah. That he is broken down mentally. The his strength and his hope in God has been destroyed. How could God? echoes in the chambers of mind. It can all be taken in and mere, beaten to a pulp

C. Trials That Breaks us Spiritually (v20)

What ever since of pride that he might of had is gone. Not a arrogance, that wasnt Jeremiah, but it seems to be the human dignity type pride Illustration: Homeless who lay on the street in misery. Their minds unable to grasp the things that happen in downward spiral, no dignity, feels less than human... This is a state <sup>comes</sup> around the

II. See The Truths Jeremiah Recalled

A. But when all of his strength is gone and his hope gone... When lowered to <sup>say</sup> the lowest... (Christ cross) Certain Truths begin

B. The Lord's Mercies - His Kheh-sed the Lord's loving kindness, love favor The Truth is that God is merciful over strong & low? Not in Hell, Alone VS 31 God hasn't cast him off forever

C. The Lord's Possession - VS 34 - portion is inheritance. God is my portion, in Him, not my health, wealth status, ... He is the which cannot be taken away. Not only is he mine but I am his! SOS 6'3 dam <sup>my</sup>

D. The Lord's Goodness - The Lord is not the author of Evil. A Righteous father, Does not have a sadistic <sup>53</sup>, glee in the suffering of his own children, Father chases a child, but as expressing love <sup>8</sup>

E. The Lord's Righteousness - VS 37-39

Because He is God he has every right to judge sin. It is a wonder that as are not consumed. Will not a loving father deal on both punishment and blessing? We have <sup>53 Ch. 10</sup> a Captain II See The Tears of His Request - 1540-42

A. This realization or train of thought brings Jeremiah full circle to see not his sinful condition but his sinful condition

B. Repentance of Transgression - Look at our ways, search out the beam in our heart. I know not all trials are in response to sins, but it is a good starting place. Lift heart: our inward beliefs the mind, bitterness envies

- bales, couldeis <sup>Jer. 10:15</sup> Lift up hands outward sinfulness, .. places we shant not go, though should not say, "We Have Transgressed." God rendered for <sup>53 Ch. 10</sup> Judgment

C. Requesting until Attention - 1548-55

This is not an attempt like the clealers that thought that bringing out the ark in time of battle might save them, this is the cry of last resort. When was the last time you wept in the presence of the Lord? Do you try prayer for a while and when that doesn't seem to be working try something else.

IV See The Founder and Founder <sup>Rever.</sup>

A. All has been said to God and ... about God, but we ~~really~~ <sup>God will not always break</sup> havent heard from God. That is until now, <sup>Ps 34:18 PSS 1:17 6th</sup>

B. The Lord's Drawing - VS 57 - God drew near. God responded. The moment that Jeremiah is experiencing is as the thrills my heart. That moment when you know the God has drawn nigh, when you do feel the brush of angel wings, when nothing is between C. The Lord's Declaration - In this whole chapter and all this talk and tears, bleeding & pain, God only says 2 words. Fear Not. But I don't think there are two greater words to hear in the depths of despair. Fear Not!
Words of Comfort, Words of Care Words of Confidence

D. The Lord Deliverance - Redeemed brought back, the Kinsmen Redeemer.
